

MIDMARK MODULAR CASEWORK

Sustainable

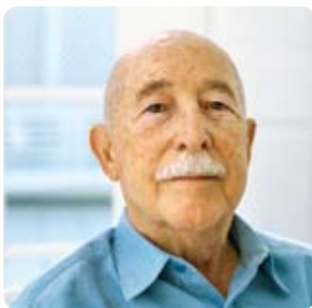

Sustainable casework designed specifically for medical environments.

Because we understand our customers' needs...

We have aligned our casework product attributes with LEED, the nationally accepted benchmark for the design, construction and operation of green building projects.

The Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Green Building Rating System is a third-party certification designed to encourage and accelerate the adoption of sustainable green building. LEED promotes a whole-building approach to sustainability by recognizing performance in five key areas of human and environmental health: sustainable site development, water savings, energy efficiency, materials selection and indoor environmental quality.

Because we want to make a positive difference in the lives we touch...

We choose to be proactive because LEED presents advantages of healthy environments through improved air quality. It enhances occupant comfort and accelerates healing. It minimizes strain on the local community infrastructure. Most importantly, LEED contributes to the overall quality of life for everyone.

Because we can make a difference...

We want to be your partner in the facilitation of a healthy working environment and in LEED certification of green buildings, today and into the future. As the common goals of healthcare and green buildings have come together, our focus remains the same—listening, responding and creating innovative solutions to make a positive difference in every life we touch.

As your partner in the green building initiative, the use of Midmark casework products can contribute to specifier strategies and LEED credits that impact building certification including:

- Water efficiency
- Construction waste management
- Material reuse
- Recycled content
- Local/regional materials
- Low emitting materials
- Innovation in design

Our unique product attributes have been designed to assist you in obtaining credits within the LEED family of rating systems. Please see back cover for a comprehensive list of those credits.

Because we care...

Midmark is dedicated to aligning our products with your goals to enable you to deliver healthcare in the best possible environment for patients and staff. We are committed to proactively seeking continuous improvements in our company, products and processes.

*LEED for Healthcare has been a joint effort between the Green Guide for Health Care and the U.S. Green Building Council. It was developed to meet the unique needs of the healthcare market, including inpatient care facilities, licensed outpatient care facilities and licensed long term care facilities. It may also be used for medical offices, assisted living facilities and medical education and research centers. For further information on LEED, please visit the USGBC website, www.usgbc.org.
