MEET THE PRESENTERS

RYAN ROBERTS, DMD

Dr. Ryan Roberts graduated from the University of Florida College of Dentistry and practiced in Southwest Florida for nearly 20 years. As an owner of a multi-specialty group practice, he combined clinical expertise with a strong focus on the patient experience. Today, he brings that same passion to dental design consulting, where his background in both dentistry and construction helps bridge the gap between clinicians, architects and contractors.

RENEE MOE, AIA, EDAC

Renee is an architect at PRA with 25+ years of dental and healthcare environment experience. She is committed to crafting environments that not only meet the functional requirements of modern dental practices but also elevate the patient and staff experience.

MEGAN ZIESEMER, NCIDQ, ASID

Megan Ziesemer is an award-winning, multi-disciplinary interior designer at PRA. By forging close collaborations with dental practitioners, she ensures every design reflects the practice's unique brand identity, values and preferences.

In 2002, Practice Design Group (PDG) was founded as a collaborative and innovative design resource for dentists. In 2024, PDG merged with PRA, which brings together a team of more than a dozen healthcare and dental design professionals to help dentists realize their unique facility visions and enhance the patient experience.
