Style Guide

Be Curious

Let design stir your senses.

Color, texture and tone have the power to evoke emotion.

Whether calm and quiet or bold and energizing, how a space feels can influence the care experience. Let your design journey begin with curiosity—and lead to a space that supports how you deliver care.

Be Transformed

Surfaces that shape your environment.

Smooth, sculpted and seamless, solid surface countertops offer a refined foundation for care. These tones evoke calm and clarity, while the material supports clinical demands with cleanability and quiet strength. In a space that serves many roles, transformation starts with the surface.

Be Expressive

Surfaces that bring warmth and resilience.

Laminates offer a balance of beauty and practicality, inviting warmth, subtle texture and design flexibility into care spaces. With approachable tones and lasting performance, they form a foundation that's durable yet welcoming.
